Advent Study

An Unlikely Advent: Extraordinary People of the Christmas Story

In this four-week Advent study, Rev. Rachel Billups guides readers through the themes of hope, love, joy, and peace by sharing the stories of Elizabeth and Zechariah, Herod, the Magi, and the shepherds. Choose from one of our four sessions or attend one that fits your schedule for that week.

Kim Nave leads Sundays at 10:15am in Room 144 starting this Sunday, Nov. 26.

Cindy White leads Tuesdays at 12noon in the Choir Room starting Nov. 28.

Pastor Dave leads Tuesday evenings at 6:30pm on Zoom starting Nov. 28. (Participants need to email Pastor Dave for the Zoom link.)

Jennifer Ferguson leads Thursday evenings at 7:30pm in the Choir Room starting Nov. 29.

Thank you for your prayers, presence, and gifts!

Financial information not available at the time of printing.

Ridge Road Project of the Month:

November: Window Coverings

MUMC Spirit Wear is now available to order online!

A portion of the proceeds from each order will go towards our Ridge Road Development Fund! Show your pride as part of our found family of faith. Place your order by visiting <https://mumcgrowwithus.itemorder.com/> or pick up an order from on the usher's table.

Once again Minooka UMC will work with the Helping Hands Food Pantry to bless our neighbors in need by filling their Christmas wish lists. Wrapped gifts can be returned to the church during office hours on Tuesday through Thursday from 9:00AM-2:30PM, during Prayer Partners on Wednesdays between 5:00-6:00PM or on Sundays.

Please include gift receipts when possible and return gifts no later than Sunday, December 10th.

Channahon UMC will hold their Hanging of the Greens on Wednesday, November 29th at 10:00AM with a light lunch following. If you are interested in helping, please sign up in the Narthex so they can order enough food.
